Author / Speaker / Podcaster

Nicki Koziarz is a two-time ECPA bestselling author and a speaker with Proverbs 31 Ministries. Nicki speaks nationally at conferences, retreats, and meetings and is the host of the Lessons from the Farm podcast. An evangelist at heart, Nicki inspires others to become the best version of who God created them to be.

Nicki is the author of two books – 5 Habits of a Woman Who Doesn't Quit and Why Her? – and companion Bible studies. Her next book and Bible study, entitled Flooded: The Best Five Decisions to Make When Life is Hard and Doubt is Rising (Bethany House Publishers, March 2021), examines the life and faith of Noah.

During the two years she spent writing Flooded, Nicki's mother lost her battle with cancer, her brother attempted suicide four times and lost his battle with addiction, a worldwide pandemic broke out alongside a national race crisis, plus a dozen other hard, personal things. In spite of the heartbreak, Nicki believes her new book is some of the most hard but holy work she has ever done.

"It's easy to trust God when our prayers are answered and life seems like a neatly folded pile of laundry. But when life is hard, it's easy to begin questioning His goodness," Nicki explains. "The good news is, Jesus has always been in the business of helping the lost become found. When doubt rolls in like a flood, He is faithful. Just because we don't like God's ways doesn't mean we can't trust His ways."

Nicki and her husband Kris and their three girls run a small farm just outside of Charlotte, North Carolina, which they affectionately call The Fixer Upper Farm.
