

Suggested Interview Questions for Andy Stanley Author of Better Decisions, Fewer Regrets

“Every decision becomes a permanent part of our story.
You write the story of your life one decision at a time.”
--Andy Stanley

- In what way are our lives shaped by our decision-making?
- You write that “good questions lead to good decisions.” Can you unpack that for us?
- What are the five questions you offer as a filter for better decision-making?
- Why do so many people avoid taking personal responsibility for their lives?
- Describe some things that sabotage our decision-making.
- Why is it so difficult to learn from bad decisions we’ve made?
- Why can truth feel so painful when we’re seeking integrity?
- How can someone learn how to defeat their dishonest heart?
- What’s the benefit of viewing our life as a story to be told?
- How do we learn “pay attention to the tension” when facing a decision?
- What’s the best way to discern between something not-wrong and something that is unwise?
- How can we develop maturity in our decision making?
- What role does love play in living with fewer regrets?
- How was Jesus’ example of loving more demanding than the prevailing religious system?
- Why does seeking God’s will for our life lead to deeper peace?
- How do the five questions align with Paul’s admonition to “renew your mind”?

Guest: Andy Stanley – Communicator, pastor, founder of North Point Ministries
Book title: Better Decisions, Fewer Regrets: 5 Questions to Help You Determine Your Next Move
Publisher: Zondervan
Available: In bookstores everywhere, October 20, 2020
