- In your previous book Fully Alive you open up about some health issues you've faced. How was this devotional inspired by the trials you've faced with your health?
- Why the title, Prevail?
- You've authored more than fifteen books and Prevail is your first yearlong devotional. How was working on this book different than any other?
- One of your devotionals is titled, Release and Trust where you explore the relationship between Abraham and Lot. How does that story apply to us today? (Day 2)
- Another one of your devotionals is titled, Deal with the Disconnect. Talk about God's promise to Abraham and Sarah and their response to that promise. (Follow up question: What might a disconnect look like in our lives today?) (Day 3)
- In your devotional titled, The Importance of the Impossible, you explore how David faced a seemingly impossible situation. Say more about that part of his story. (Day 89)
- You call this devotional "a boot-camp for the soul." What should readers expect in their faith life when they start this book?
- In one of the devotionals, you explore Elijah's prayer in 1 Kings 18:37 where he prays, "O Lord, answer me! Answer me so these people will know that You, O Lord, are God and that you have brought them back to yourself!" (Day75)
- Let's visit one more of your devotionals. This one is titled, Perspective Before the Breakthrough where you write about how Joseph's experience in prison prepared him for the palace. Say more about that.
- What passage of scripture has most come alive to you in the recent days?
