THE PATH OF LIFE: WALKING IN THE LOVING PRESENCE OF GOD

LISA ROBERTSON UNCOVERS JOY ON WHATEVER PATH IN LIFE YOU ARE FACING

(Nashville, Tenn.) – Moving from one stage of life to the next can be confusing and uncertain. What is God's path for me? How can I find it? Is this the right next step? Lisa Robertson, who has mentored women and led women's ministries for more than three decades, understands the challenges of life's changing seasons. Now Lisa offers seasoned wisdom, practical help and scriptural guidance in her book, The Path of Life: Walking in the Loving Presence of God (Emanate Books, ISBN#978-0-7852-2356-6, May 7, 2019).

Lisa graduated college and established a career in advertising and sales before her life path took a dramatic change. She married Tim Robertson and her focus shifted to the art of raising five children. Eager to follow God's leading in this new stage of life, Lisa began leading Bible studies for women. She eventually founded Changing Seasons, an outreach ministry for women, and became an advocate for early childhood education in the state of Virginia. Today Lisa readily shares what she has learned about following God's path through life's changing seasons.

"As I moved from one stage of life to the next, the theme of a 'path of life' stood out to me as I studied more of the Bible," writes Robertson. "The path of life is created by God just for you. God has a personal path for each one of us."

The cornerstone of Lisa's new book is Psalm 16:11, "You will make known to me the path of life; in Your presence is fullness of joy; in Your right hand there are pleasures forever." Lisa first noticed this verse on a wedding gift card when she married Tim Robertson, and the verse has guided her life ever since.

Filled with poignant stories and Biblical truth, The Path of Life invites readers to develop new sensitivity to God's leading. "Finding God's path for your life is not a mystery or impossible," she explains. "When I ask the Lord to show me the way or to help me make a wise decision, often I have this thought: Do what you know to do. Or simply, Take the next step. Just one step."

Readers will benefit from Robertson’s practical insights in significant areas including:

- How to specifically know if you are on God’s path for your life
- Finding your own path without being distracted by other good options
- Using difficult times to experience God’s good guidance, insight and wisdom
- Accepting Jesus’ invitation to participate in and witness modern-day miracles
- Parenting your children (those at home or grown) from a place of peace and grace

Lisa Robertson and The Path of Life will be featured on “The 700 Club” (May 2, 2019) and at Proverbs31.org. National advertising and key speaking events are scheduled for the book launch. And a high-profile national publicity campaign featuring interviews, excerpts and reviews is already underway.

Lisa Robertson is a noted author and teacher with more than thirty years’ experience in leading women’s Bible studies. She is the author of several books and Bible studies including The Path of Life: Walking in the Loving Presence of God, Advent: Making Christmas About Christ, and The Faithful Beginnings School Readiness Guide. She serves on the Virginia State Board of E3 (Elevate Early Education), was a founding board member of Alpha North America, and is the founder of Changing Seasons, an outreach ministry encouraging and inspiring women. Lisa is married to Tim Robertson, CEO and Founder of Bayshore Enterprises and former CEO of The Family Channel, an international cable network. Lisa and Tim live in Virginia, and they have five children and ten grandchildren.
